

Spring Dinner

Rosanna Wong

Over 80 alumni and friends came to our Spring Dinner at Jade Seafood Restaurant on February 28, 2015 to celebrate the Year of the Ram. Even though we were in Canada, the celebration was filled with Chinese traditions and festivities. The dining hall was decorated with red fai-chuns handwritten by our alumni calligraphers C. F. Lee and Alan Kwan. Alan also wrote some fai-chuns spontaneously on specific requests from the guests. Our guests were thrilled to see the new Vice-Chancellor of our alma mater, Professor Peter Mathieson, on video delivering his Chinese New Year greetings to us across the miles. We had a lot of fun participating in games of trivia, riddles and tongue twisters, followed by a lucky draw. Several lucky guests received red packets as prizes. At the same time, we filled our stomachs with New Year customary dishes that would hopefully bring us good fortune in the New Year.

Happy
New
Year!
